

American Conference on DiversitySM

VALUING DIVERSITY, EDUCATING LEADERS, PROMOTING RESPECT

PAM KWATRA

President, Kripari Marketing

Pam Kwatra, a dedicated civic-social worker, a trailblazer, always keeping the interest of the community/society above personal interest. She has facilitated and organized numerous fund raising events to support victims of natural disasters in USA.

Pam Kwatra, a US Citizen, has a dedicated record of civic-social and professional accomplishments and recognition. A trailblazer, always keeping the interest of the community/society above personal interests. Pam is an active social worker who has supported numerous community projects, including disadvantaged women who were in need of shelter and support. Pam is recipient of numerous awards, recognitions & citations. Pam Kwatra was the only Indian woman to receive the prestigious "Ellis Island Award" in 2008. It is highest Award in US given to Private Citizen. She has founded many non- profit organizations.

In 1995 Pam Kwatra launched Raj Kapoor book at the Indian Consulate and invited Gregory Peck and Cecilia Peck as Chief Guest.

In 1996 Pam Kwatra with Jasjeet Singh ji, President of Chevron founded SAALT (South Asian American Leaders of Tomorrow)

An organization which is growing and making a difference to our community. She is a trustee founder of SAALT today

In 1997 Pam joined the board of Just a Minute of peace where many Nobel Laureates are also on the board.

In 1998 Pam was invited to serve on Navjyoti and India Vision Foundation both accredited by United Nation.

In 1999 Pam Kwatra launched several successful cultural programs and dance dramas at the United Nations.

In 2002 Pam Kwatra was voted to be NRI of the month by National Magazine "NRI TODAY"

In 2003 Pam organized a book reading event for United Nations Chief of Peace Keeping Police for the world, Kiran Bedi's biography.

In 2005 Pam Kwatra organized a press conference @ the United Nation to facilitate a visit by former Miss Universe Zuleyka Mendoza and Hollywood actress Michelle Rodriguez in support of Aids awareness campaign in India.

In 2003 & 2005 Pam Kwatra was voted NRI of the Month by the NRI Today Magazine.

In 2006 she founded South Asian Business Alliance Network along with Mohamad Islam.

In 2008 she was the only Indian woman to receive the "Prestigious Ellis Island Award". It is highest Award in US given to Private Citizen.

In 2008 Pam organized a book reading of Kathleen Kennedy's "Failing America's Faithful" at the United Nations in April 2008.

In 2010 she was a recipient of Mother Teresa Award in Ludhiana, Punjab India.

At present she is a President of Indian National Overseas Congress, NJ and Executive member of Indian National Overseas Congress USA.

She was inducted as the President of South Asian Business Alliance Network in 2011 at the Grand Hotel in Los Angeles, SABAN has 12 chapters nationwide.

Pam graduated from the prestigious Delhi University in India, majoring in English & Economics.